

LAUC-I Program Invitation to "Research: A Journey of Discovery" workshop at UCI May 22

The Librarians Association of the University of California, Irvine (LAUC-I) is hosting a workshop on research in librarianship. We are cordially inviting any and all library folk to our campus for this free event.

The speaker will be Jonathan Eldredge, MLS, PhD, AHIP who is Library Knowledge Consultant at the Health Sciences Library and Informatics Center, and Associate Professor (Tenured) in the School of Medicine, The University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, <http://hsc.unm.edu/library/faculty/Eldredge.shtml>.

The title of Dr. Eldredge's presentation is "Research: A Journey of Discovery."

Date: May 22, 2009

Time: 8:30am-11:30am

Place: At UCI Langson Library, room 570

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

If you are interested in attending this workshop, please email Becky Imamoto <rimamoto@uci.edu> by May 20. She will be happy to answer any questions that you might have and to provide information about directions and campus parking.

Many Thanks,

The LAUC-I Program Committee (Vicki Grahame, Becky Imamoto, Bob Johnson, and Kathryn Kjaer)
