Summary of Activities 2010-2011

Lunch with LAUC-I: The Program Committee sponsored the following Lunch with LAUC-I programs during 2010-2011. Delicious lunches were served at all events:

- Conference Updates: LAUC-I members provided updates on presentations, committee activities, and programs from conferences attended.
 - Lunch with LAUC-I: Conference Update I, Tuesday, February 1, 2011, 12:00 – 1:00, ASL 104.
 - Lunch with LAUC-I: Conference Update II, Wednesday, July 13, 2011, 11:45 – 1:00, LL 570.

- Faculty Speakers: The Committee invited two UCI professors to give talks on interesting aspects of their research.
 - Hal Stern, Dean of the Bren School of Information and Computer Sciences spoke on Sports, the BCS, and Statistics on February 24, 2011, ASL 104
 - Lucas Hilderbrand, Professor in the Department of Film and Media Studies, spoke on The Revolution Was Recorded: Vanderbilt Television News Archive, Copyright in Conflict, and the Making of TV History.

Ice Cream Social: The Program Committee sponsored an Ice Cream Social in Aldrich Park on April 20, 2011. This was an opportunity to celebrate the hard work and dedication of the entire Libraries staff. The committee catered the event with a mobile Ben and Jerry's stand providing a variety of ice cream and toppings.

David Folkenflik Talk: We capped off the year with a major event that was open to the public and attracted nearly 200 attendees. David Folkenflik, National Public Radio Media Correspondent, accepted our invitation to speak on August 23, 2011. He entitled his talk How Can We Trust the News? The Committee worked with Library Administration, Library Development, Design Services, the Libraries Marketing and Advocacy Advisory Committee, UCI Event Services, UCI Catering, and others to advertise, organize, and facilitate the talk and reception. Several LAUC-I members served as volunteers at the event. Photographs and a video of the talk are going to be posted on the Libraries website. UCI OpenCourseWare has asked for a copy of the video to post on their distance learning site.
