Summary of Activities:

The Program committee sponsored the following events in 2015-2016:

Tour of the Vietnamese Focus exhibit at the Old Orange County Courthouse on November 6, 2015

Attendees received a personal tour of the Vietnamese Focus exhibit, a temporary exhibit comprised of various pieces of art, personal narratives, and other primary sources to tell the story of the growth of the Orange County Vietnamese population.

- 6 Attendees

Lunch with Prof. Anthony Reese (UCI Law School) on April 8, 2016

Prof. Reese talked with attendees about copyright issues. He discussed many contemporary court cases which illuminate why our copyright system has developed into the way it is currently legally interpreted and how this intersects with services provided by libraries and librarians.

- 17 Attendees

Lunch with Prof. Kelli Sharp (UCI Department of Dance) on April 29, 2016

Prof. Sharp talked with attendees about her work with the burgeoning field of the medical humanities, specifically, how dance can be used as a therapeutic tool for spinal cord injuries.

- 20 Attendees

EXPERI(M)ENT(I)AL: Developing Process-oriented, User-focused Methodologies in the Library on August 19, 2016

This half-day workshop jointly sponsored with the Southern California Instruction Librarians (SCIL) group features a keynote address by Char Booth, breakout sessions to reflect on the address, a round of lightning presentations, and a networking event. This event is open to the local library community and already has librarians registered from as far away as UC, Berkeley and a medical library in Arizona.

- Space for 75 attendees; 73 registered as of 7/19/16
