

Programming Committee (LAUC-I PC)
LAUC-I Standing Committee
2020-2021 Report

Submitted to General Membership: August 26 2020

Submitted by: Jenna Dufour

Members:

Current for 2020/2021:

Chair: Jenna Dufour (2019 - 2021)

Josh Hutchinson (2019-2021)

Ying Zhan (2020-2022)

Matthew Flyntz (2020-2022)

Incoming 2021/2022:

Chair: Ying Zhang (2020-2022)

Matthew Flyntz (2020-2022)

Richard Cho (2021-2023)

Laura Fouladi (2021-2023)

Supplemental Charges (if applicable): N/A

Summary of Activities:

1. Global Librarianship at UCI: The Korea Foundation Internship & Presentation by 2020 Intern Guhee Kim (December 12, 2020)
 - a. Format: Presentation
 - b. Total Attendance: 25
 - c. Notes: Attendees learned about the UCI Libraries Korea Foundation Internship, which began in 2016 and provides librarians-in-training from Korea with practical experience in an academic library outside their country. The 2020 Korea Foundation Intern, Guhee Kim, shared her internship experience with a particular emphasis on her work creating an online exhibit to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the Korean War.
 - d. Cost: $0

2. Levels of Racism with OCHR (Orange County Human Relations) (March & April 2021)
 - a. Format: Workshop
 - b. Total Attendance: 88
 - c. Notes: A collaboration with the Diversity Team that resulted in a 2-part virtual workshop facilitated by expert trainers (Valerie Dickson and Seema Shah) from Orange County Human Relations (OCHR). The goal was to provide space and time for library employees to learn more about racism in America, and to begin conversations and ideas about how to support anti-racism in the library's services, collections, and work culture.

- d. Cost: $1,000 (the remainder of the $2,000 fee was covered by Library Administration)
3. Books Are for All: How Mary Elizabeth Wood Helped to Establish the Modern Public Library System in China with Professor Huanwen Cheng (Sun Yat-sen University) (March 10, 2021)
 - a. Format: Lecture
 - b. Attendance: 27
 - c. Notes:
 - d. Cost: $0
 4. LAUC-I Program Committee Wiki Clean Up (August 2021)
 - a. The Program Committee Chair consulted the LAUC-I Executive Board, who approved a documentation clean-up summer project.
 - b. This involved: cleaning up file naming for consistency, archiving old meetings from 2013 through 2019, and deleting any irrelevant pages that did not document a specific program, meeting, or other important information.

Recommendations for the Future:

1. DEIA (diversity, equity, inclusion and accessibility) programs and learning opportunities and note that Library Administration may be able to match or help with any funds associated with guest speakers or workshop trainers
2. Pick up on the original planned visit to the Huntington Library & Botanical Gardens (Jenna happy to provide old details to the March 2020 event that was cancelled)