

Program Committee LAUC-I Standing Committee 2022-2023 Report
--

Submitted to General Membership: July 27, 2023

Submitted by: Jharina Pascual

Members (End Term): Jharina Pascual (Chair, March 2023- -September 2024); Laura Fouladi (Chair September 2022- February 2023), Richard Cho (2023), Ashley Newton (2024)

Charge: The Program Committee organizes, advertise, and coordinates various programs of interest to LAUC-I membership at the direction of or in consultation with the LAUC-I Chair and Executive Board.

Supplemental Charges (if applicable): n/a

Summary of Activities:

1. Friday, November 18: Local scholars and activists to give a Zoom presentation on the Acjachemen people, indigenous to Southern California, and discuss some of the work they do to preserve their community and culture
 - o Joyce Perry: Acjachemen tribal scholar
 - o Patricia Martz: President of the California Cultural Resources Preservation Alliance
 - o 31 participants overall
2. Thursday, March 30: we're planning a morning field trip to the Jack & Shanaz Langson Institute & Museum of California Art to view their spring exhibition, The Bruton Sisters: Modernism in the Making
 - o Introduction to the museum and exhibit by Julie Delliquanti (Assistant Director, Visitor Experience) + Sebastián Vizcaíno Cortés (Community Engagement Assistant)
 - o 7 librarian attendees (+1 guest)

Recommendations for the Future:

1. Winter or Spring Quarter: we're hoping for an in-person talk by UCI Professor of Anthropology Tom Boellstorff about his work on the metaverse and other virtual worlds