

Please RSVP by Monday May 18th for LAUC-I's Timely Topics "Research: A Journey of Discovery" on Friday May 22nd. RSVPing is important as it helps me figure out how much food I need to order.

A couple of changes have been made about the workshop since the original email went out. I have bolded the changes on the description below.

Please join LAUC-I for a morning of research, including applied research in librarianship!

Date: May 22, 2009

Time: 8:30am-11:30am (no longer till 12:30)

Place: Langson Library 570

Our speaker is Jonathan Eldredge, MLS, PhD, AHIP is the Library Knowledge Consultant, Health Sciences Library and Informatics Center; Associate Professor (Tenured), School of Medicine, The University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

David P. Kennedy, Ph.D will be visiting us on June 16th instead for a Lunch with LAUC-I event. Details will follow in the next couple of weeks.

All are welcome to attend, non-exempt staff who participate should request approval from their supervisor prior to attending if needed. LAUC members will see this event on their Oracle calendars.

Breakfast and refreshments will be provided.

Many Thanks,

The Program Committee (Vicki Grahame, Becky Imamoto, Bob Johnson, and Kathryn Kjaer)
