

Lunch with LAUC-I: Virtual Resources

SL 104 noon – 1 p.m.

The LAUC-I Program Committee hosted a Lunch with LAUC-I on Thursday March 5, 2009 in SL 104. The title was "Virtual Resources" and the plan was to provide an overview of resources available to us at UCI for telecommuting.

The speakers were as follows:

Brian Williams

(MOSIO, answering reference questions via cell phone) <http://mosio.com/>

Delicious.com - tags for mozio (<http://delicious.com/brianrwuci/mosio>)

Review of Mosio

Murphy, Joseph. "Mosio's Text A Librarian." The Charleston Advisor, Volume 10, Number 3, January 2009 , pp. 52-54(3)

<http://charleston.publisher.ingentaconnect.com/content/charleston/chadv/2009/0000010/00000003/art00017>

Carol Hughes

(Skype) <http://www.skype.com/>

Limit to nine connections

Webcam, microphone and speakers (or headset with microphone)

VOIP and VOIP to landline

Videoconferencing – synch/drops

$30/year for phone number

$3/month - Dialing to US, Canada

Jeff Fisher

(video teleconferencing at UC Irvine from the Teaching and Learning Technology Center [TLTC]) <http://www.tluc.uci.edu/>

Videoconferencing Room – fits 25-30 people

Document Camera

Cameras pointing to audience and one to presenter

Computer display

Administrative Video Teleconferencing Unit

Desktop videoconference using MSN Live Messenger

<http://messenger.live.com/>(similar to Skype)

Online tutorial (Camtasia) for installation and configuration

Charge: $30/hour interdepartmental recharge fee

Jeff Schneidewind

(resources at the ILC/MRC)

Polycom/Tandberg
Webcam with Skype, iChat
Campus teleconferencing services

Audio options:
Campus phone

Ericsson – up to eight connections plus the initiator

Qwest – up to twenty-five connections

Polycom conference phone – for conference calls, webinars, interviews

Headsets with Skype

HD webcam

Shared workstations (SL 241 and LL 150)

We did not have time for Jeffra Bussman's discussion of Elluminate (<http://www.illuminate.com/>).

Thirty-seven people attended and we spent $76.42 on food and supplies.

LAUC-I Program Committee 2008-09

Becky Imamoto, co-chair

Bob Johnson, co-chair

Vicki Grahame

Kathryn Kjaer