

“My hope as local chair is that LAUCI will maintain focus on developing substantive and entertaining programming throughout the year, even to the detriment of traditional procedure. I hope for the good of the organization that we manage in some small way to ‘flip’ the procedural versus substantive balance.” – Brian Williams